

MINISTRY OF HIGHER AND SECONDARY SPECIAL EDUCATION
TASHKENT STATE UNIVERSITY OF ORIENTAL STUDIES

INFORMATION LETTER

On November 20, 2021 at the Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies is held International Scientific Conference on the topic "Uzbekistan-China: Development of historical, cultural, scientific and economic relations"

Aims and tasks of the conference:

- Exchange of experience in the sphere of innovations and new developments in the system of science and education in Uzbekistan and China.
- Exchange of views on the problems of philology, philosophy, history, economics, sociolinguistics, linguoculturology, translation studies in the field of Chinese science;
- To promote the further development of international relations in the scientific sphere between Uzbekistan and China; Studying of perspective relations between Uzbekistan and China, identification of practical proposals in this direction;
- Coordination of research work in the direction of Sinology;
- Advanced training of young scientists;
- Identification of scientific topics in the field of cooperation on topical issues of Sinology, as well as proposals for new scientific projects of international scale;

The conference will be held on the following sections:

- Linguistics and innovative methods of teaching.
- History, philosophy and culture
- Translation, literature and source study.
- Economic relations within the project "One belt, one road"

The following topics are included in Conference materials:

- Scientific and practical questions on the Chinese language and linguistics;
- Innovative methods of teaching Chinese;
- The current state and development of research on linguocultural and sociolinguistic aspects;
- The current state and development of political and economic cooperation between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the People's Republic of China;
- Trade and economic relations between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the People's Republic of China;
- Questions on attracting PRC investments into the economy of the Republic of Uzbekistan: projects, problems, plans.
- Coverage of the history of Central Asia in Chinese sources;
- The concept of Confucius and the current state;
- Questions of Chinese philosophy;
- Translation problems of outstanding works of Chinese literature into Uzbek;
- Translation issues of outstanding works of Uzbek literature into Chinese;

- The influence of economic processes in China on the international, including on the states of Central Asia;
- Issues of cooperation in the humanitarian and cultural spheres between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the PRC.

The materials of the conference will be published in a separate collection.

Articles should be submitted electronically and in hard copy in 5-7 pages. Articles can be in Uzbek, Russian, English, and Chinese. Texts of articles should be sent in 3 languages- (Microsoft Word, Time New Roman (in Uzbek, Russian or English), font 14 Hegel, 1.5 word interval 30 mm, reference 15 mm, top and bottom 25 mm. Letters, 2 lines below the name, surname, scientific degree and position, place of work (in full), then after 2 intervals, the text of the article should be edited at the end of the article.

The text of the article should be edited in terms of scientific, stylistic and technical.

Scientific articles that do not meet the requirements will not be included in the conference proceedings. The collection of conference materials will be provided in electronic form on the day of the conference.

Articles are accepted until October 15, 2021.

Late submissions will not be accepted. From the authors of reports and articles for participation and publication, the fee is not charged. Organizing committee does not provide travel and accommodation in the hotel.

The text of the articles should be sent to the following address: Tashkent, St. A. Temur, 26. Tashkent State University of Oriental Studies, Faculty of Chinese Studies, Department of Chinese Philology

Tel.:

+998 90 3518156 Kurbanova Nilufar,

+998998337513 Holikova Madinabonu

E-mail:

conferencechinauzbek@gmail.com

Telegram channel:

<https://t.me/conferencechinauzbek>